Dear Senate Colleague,

We are writing to invite you to participate in an upcoming retreat – “Early Lessons from ESSA: State and District Perspectives on Accountability and School Improvement” – for the Aspen Senior Congressional Education Staff Network from 12:30 PM Tuesday, February 21 to 1:00 PM Thursday, February 23, 2017 at Airlie House, located 48 miles from Washington, DC.

At this retreat, staffers will hear from state and district leaders on early implementation lessons of the Every Student Succeeds Act. Staffers will explore how states are developing ESSA state plans and accountability systems, including how they are approaching new school-quality and English language proficiency indicators. The retreat will also focus on SEA capacity and the resources needed to support school improvement and provide an opportunity to take a deep dive into selected state ESSA plans. Finally, the retreat will provide an opportunity for staffers to engage in their own learning and build working relationships with colleagues from different parties and chambers and with leading experts in the field.

We fully comply with the rules that have been enacted by the Senate regarding privately-funded travel. Enclosed you will find all the forms necessary for Ethics rules compliance:

- A detailed agenda listing discussion sessions
- A completed Private Sponsor Travel Certification form
- A list of invited staffers
- A blank Employee Pre-Travel Authorization form

You must complete the Employee Pre-Travel Authorization Form and submit it with the enclosed agenda, list of invited staffers, and Private Sponsor Travel Certification form directly to the Senate Ethics Committee (220 Hart) no later than Monday, January 23, 2017. After receiving the completed travel package, the Ethics Committee will review and issue an approval to you or your sponsoring Member. After the trip, you will need to complete a post-travel form that we will email to you after the retreat.

Attendance is by invitation only, with no outside observers or lobbyists. Funding is provided solely by grants from established foundations – no government, individual, foreign, corporate, or special interest money is accepted. The Network is supported by The Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation and the Carnegie Corporation of New York. The Aspen Education & Society Program maintains autonomy over invitations, materials, and the agenda for the retreat.

The retreat will begin at 12:30 PM on Tuesday, February 21, 2017, at Airlie House, and will conclude at 1:00 PM on Thursday, February 23, 2017. Please plan your travel accordingly in order to be present for the duration of the retreat. Dress is casual for all meetings.

The retreat promises to be productive and informative. We look forward to seeing you there.

Warm regards,

Charles T. Carr
